APPEAL

Pursuant to Article 203 of Legislative Decree 285/92, within 60 days from the date of the dispute or notification of the violation, if the reduced payment has not been made, the interested parties may appeal, on plain paper, to the Prefect of Verona, by filing or sending by registered letter with return receipt the defensive letter to the Local Police of Verona, or by sending registered letter with return receipt directly to the Territorial Office of the Government. The appellant may also ask to be personally heard. Recourse is also envisaged for an ancillary administrative sanction only. If the Prefect decides to reject the opposition, an order-injunction will be issued for an amount not less than double the minimum of the legal sanction, in addition to the costs of the procedure and notification. Alternatively, pursuant to art. 204 bis of Legislative Decree 285/92 and art. 7 of Legislative Decree 150/2011, within 30 days from the date of the dispute or notification of the violation, if the reduced payment has not been made and an appeal has not been made to the Prefect, an appeal may be made to the Justice of the Peace, by filing the deed with the Chancery of the Justice of the Peace of Verona. The appeal also extends to accessory sanctions. If no appeal has been lodged within the established terms or a reduced payment has not been made, the report constitutes an enforceable title for a sum equal to half of the maximum legal limit and for the costs of proceedings and notification. In cases of objective connection with a crime pursuant to art. 221 CdS, the Criminal Judge competent to know the crime is also competent to apply the administrative sanction. If the transgressor has not made use of the right to make a reduced payment, the report may be challenged before the competent Authority in order to obtain the suspension of the enforceable effectiveness pending the definition of the related criminal proceedings.

RENTAL VEHICLES. COMMUNICATION OF THE LESSEE'S PERSONAL DATA

In the case of rental of a vehicle without a driver, the owner of the vehicle must communicate to the Headquarters, within 60 days of notification of the report, all the data necessary to identify the natural or legal person to whom the vehicle was rented, attaching a copy of the lease agreement and / or documentation suitable for the complete and correct identification of the tenant. This communication can be made by connecting to the website of the Municipality of Verona, at the following link: <https://noleggiopl.comune.verona.it> by filling in the dedicated web page with all the required data and attaching the required documentation.

Using this method, a message will be sent to the hirer's e-mail to take charge of the practice; subsequently, once the correctness of the transmitted data has been verified, confirmation of a regular conclusion will be sent. If, on the other hand, the communication does not allow the correct identification of the tenant, notice will always be given to the e-mail indicated by the lessor.

In the absence of the communication of the tenant's data within the established terms, we will proceed in accordance with the law towards the rental company (articles 84 and 196 of the CdS - Circ. Min. Int. N. 300 / A / 48507/113/2 of 15.1.1994, Law 9 November 2021, n. 156 of conv. With mod. Of Legislative Decree 10 September 2021, n. 121).
